

*we came
we saw
we conquered*

SOUTHPORT HIGH SCHOOL • INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA

THE 1951 ANCHOR

We have chosen as our theme, Caesar's famous adage, Veni, Vidi, Vici, which means I came, I saw, I conquered. However, we have changed it to We came, We saw, We conquered.

Within these pages of the 1951 Anchor, we attempt to depict in these three different divisions the events which have impressed us the most and which have formed a memorable part of our life during our four years at Southport High School.

By this pictorial method, we have endeavored to record a permanent record of our services, achievements, and social events at Southport High School.

Seniors, who are now experiencing the realization that graduation is about here, try on their caps and gowns for size.

we came . . .

We came . . . the majority of us from six different grade schools, University Heights, Edgewood, Bluff, Southport, St. Rock's and Glens Valley. We came to work and play together in our classes, clubs, and activities. As we came together, we learned to put aside our differences and to live together in harmony.

As freshmen we had the fears of being late to classes, getting lost in the mob, being confused with the lunch periods, walking on the gym floor, and being called in "on the green carpet," to have our misdemeanors corrected.

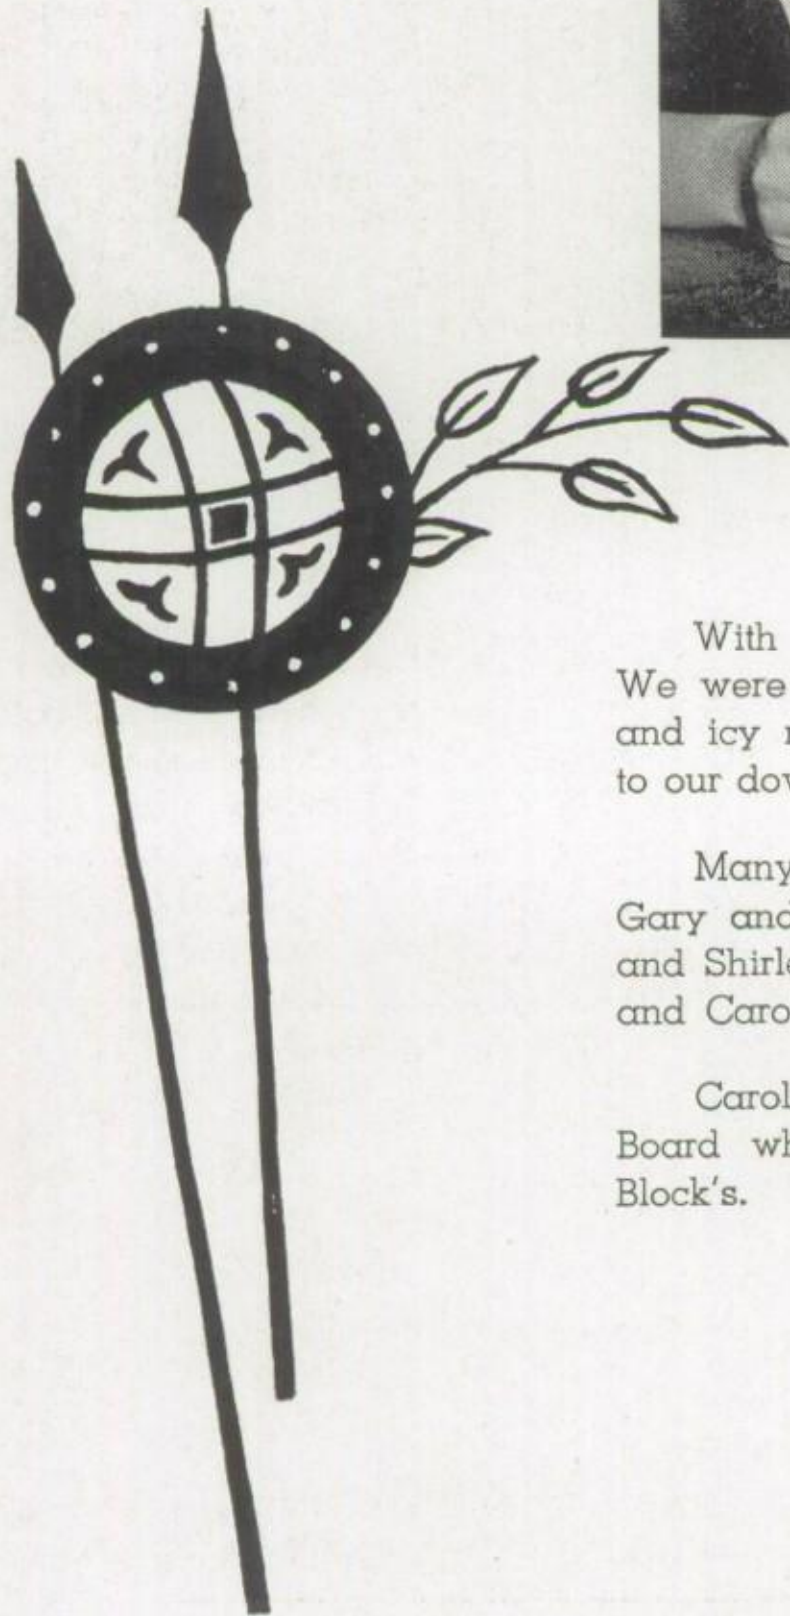

When school opens in the fall, one of the most frequented places is the bookstore where pens, pencils, workbooks, paper, and many other useful articles are sold under the supervision of Mrs. Weaver.

After we overcame our first fears of the upperclassmen, we started participating in the social affairs, such as going to rollerskating parties, class parties, and dances.

With the coming of winter, came the big snow drifts too. We were dismissed several days because of this deep snow and icy roads, but the pugnacious plow plowed purposefully to our downfall so that we were again called back to classes.

Many sets of twins have come to Southport High School—Gary and Jerry Butner, Janet and Janice Nugent, and Sharlet and Shirlee Forth, all freshmen, Bob and Dick Weddle, juniors, and Carol and Esther Moeller, sophomores.

Carol and Esther represent Southport on Block's Fashion Board where girls from numerous schools do modeling for Block's.

We came to Southport High School and enrolled in the various classes, both from the standpoint of knowledge and from the work associated with them, hoping that someday the knowledge which we acquired through books and through associations would help us in the future to climb to the top rung on our "ladder of success."

Even though we are now on city delivery, Mr. Young still brings us mail from the Southport post office.

Mr. Eedo Kaljumagi journeyed from Germany and came to Southport for the first time this school year. He and Carl Fink look over the Christmas tree which the Senior-ority plans to decorate for the front hall.

Here, we also find Allen Martindale waiting for the bell to catch him off guard.

During the lunch periods we will always find Don Knight and Frances Tommamchel working industriously in the dishwashing room amid a few other capers.

Of course, the football and basketball games would not be complete without the color guards. They come to support the game in their own way by performing at the half during the varsity games. The alternates which serve are Gloria Hill, Sharlet Forth, Shirlee Forth, and Linda Riley.

BOOSTER CLUB

The secret to a good team is its morale.

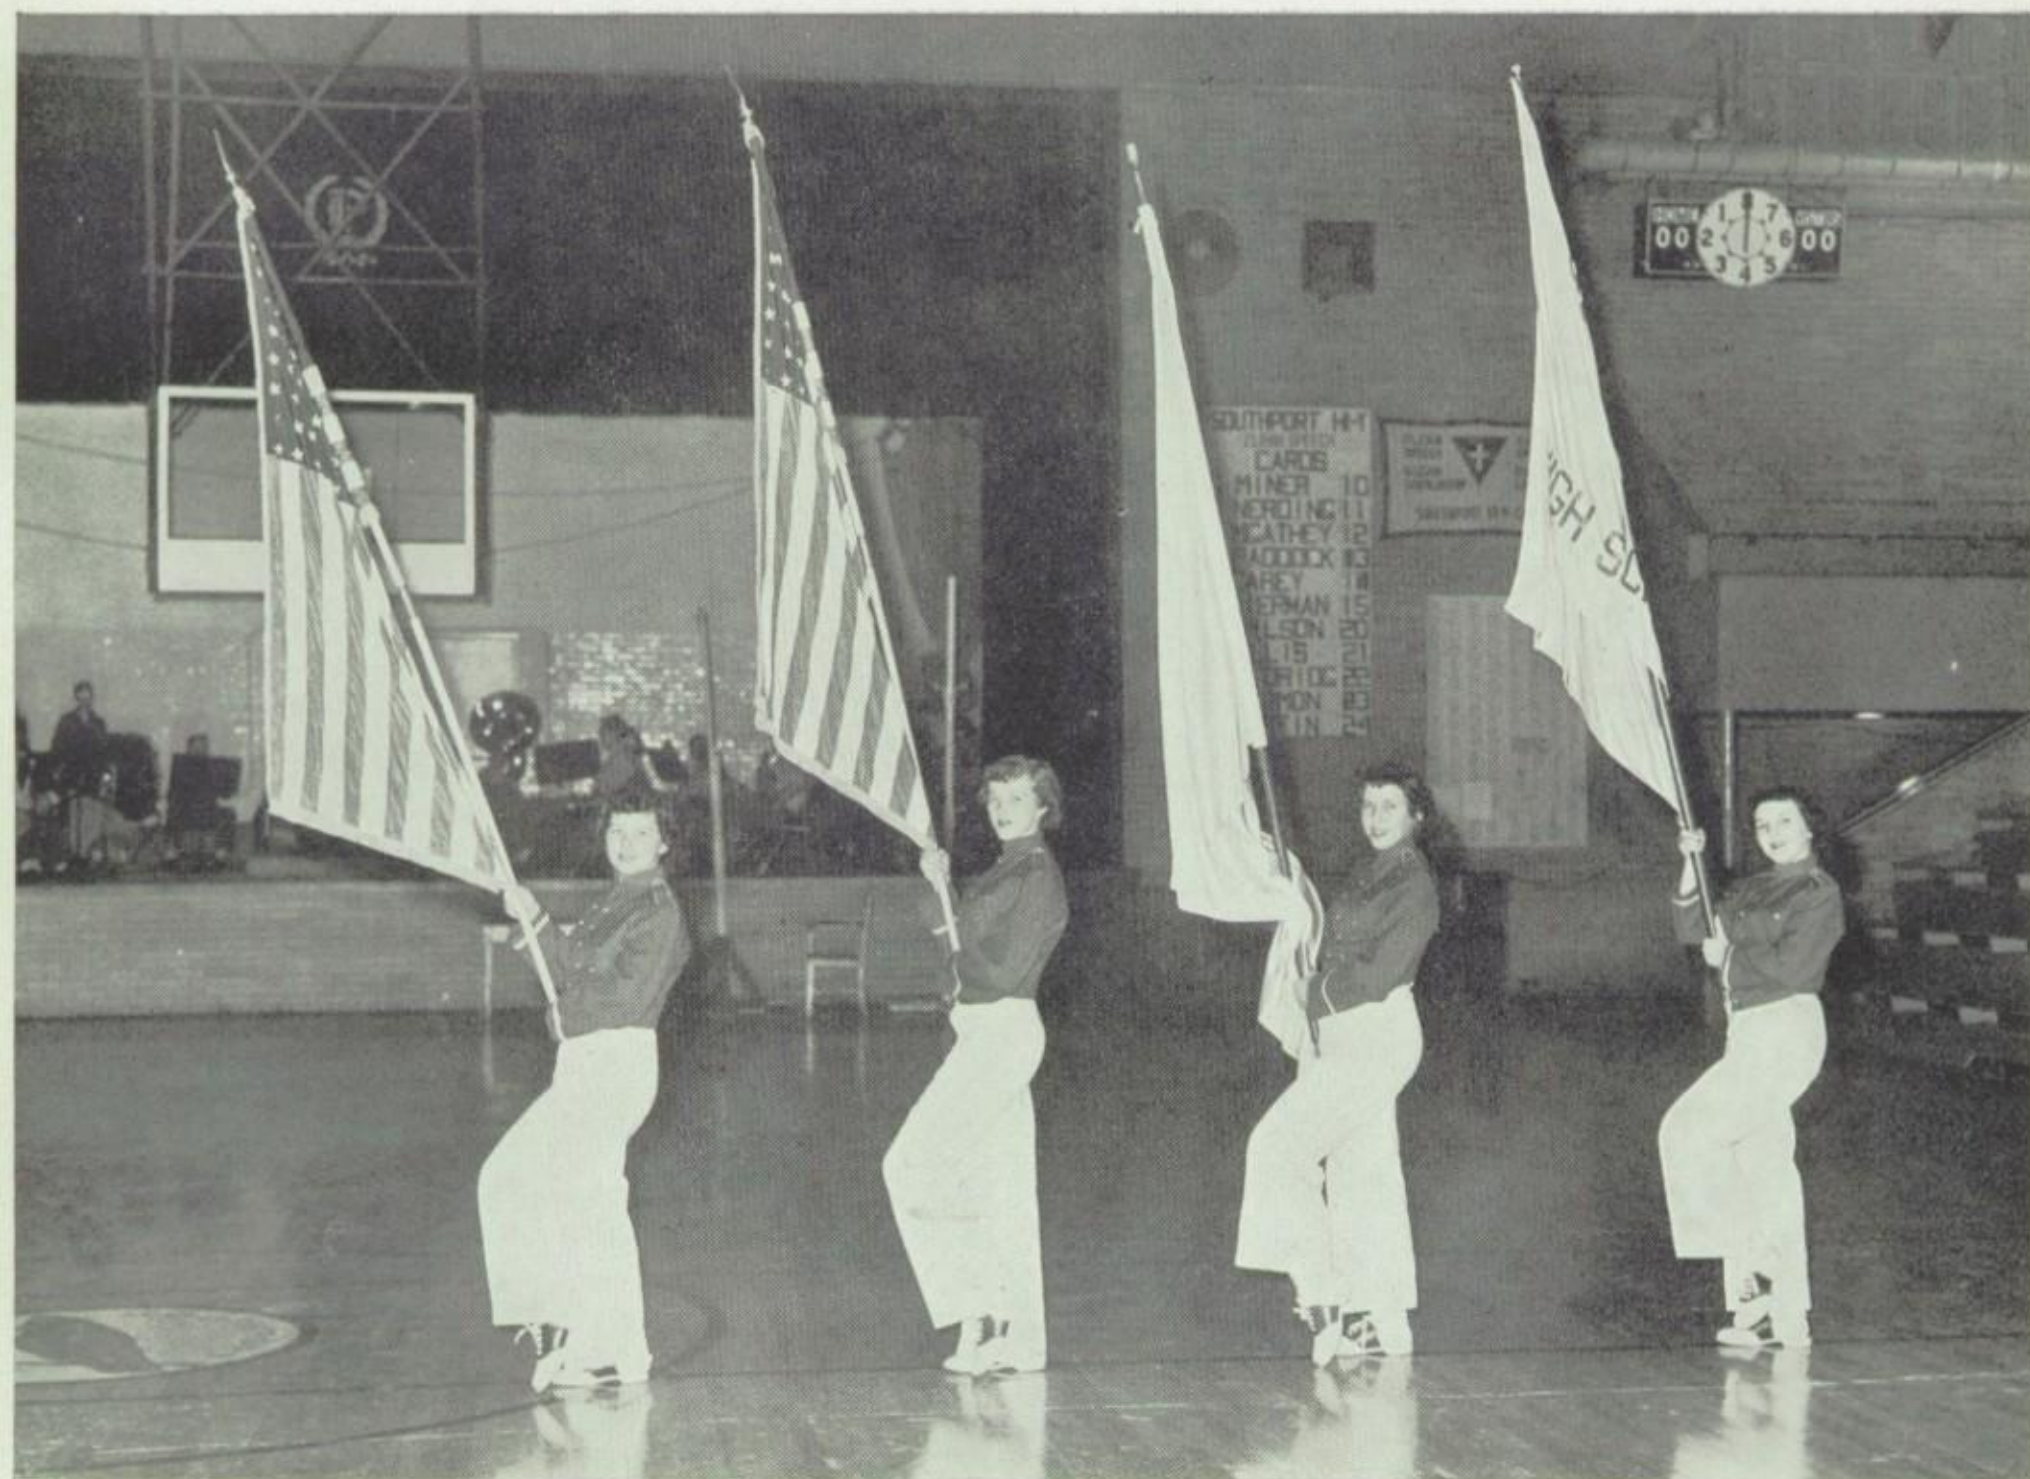

The Booster Club, to which any student may belong, has as its main objective to encourage school spirit and to strengthen its morale. Therefore it plans pep sessions to be given before each important athletic event.

However it offers many other services such as ushering at the Easter Sunrise Service and buying new records for the juke-box.

Planning for these varied activities are Jerry Danner, president; Bob Cameron, vice-president, and Joan Eberhart, secretary-treasurer, under the direct sponsorship of Walter G. Kellam, Dean of Boys.

Coming to see the football and basketball games, all became a part of our life. During the halves, remember the silence that reigned when the color guards brought the flag into view and the National Anthem was played. The color guards which helped to make this such an impressible scene were Barbara Westerfield, Mary Jane Jarvis, Marlouise Kleis and Betty Lampher.

CHOW TIME!

America's favorite pas-time—eating.

At Southport this is very true for the cafeteria is a very important and popular place. When the bell rings for the lunch periods to begin there is a great rush to get in line and to get something to eat.

After eating comes fun-making with this crowd as you can see every second lunch period.

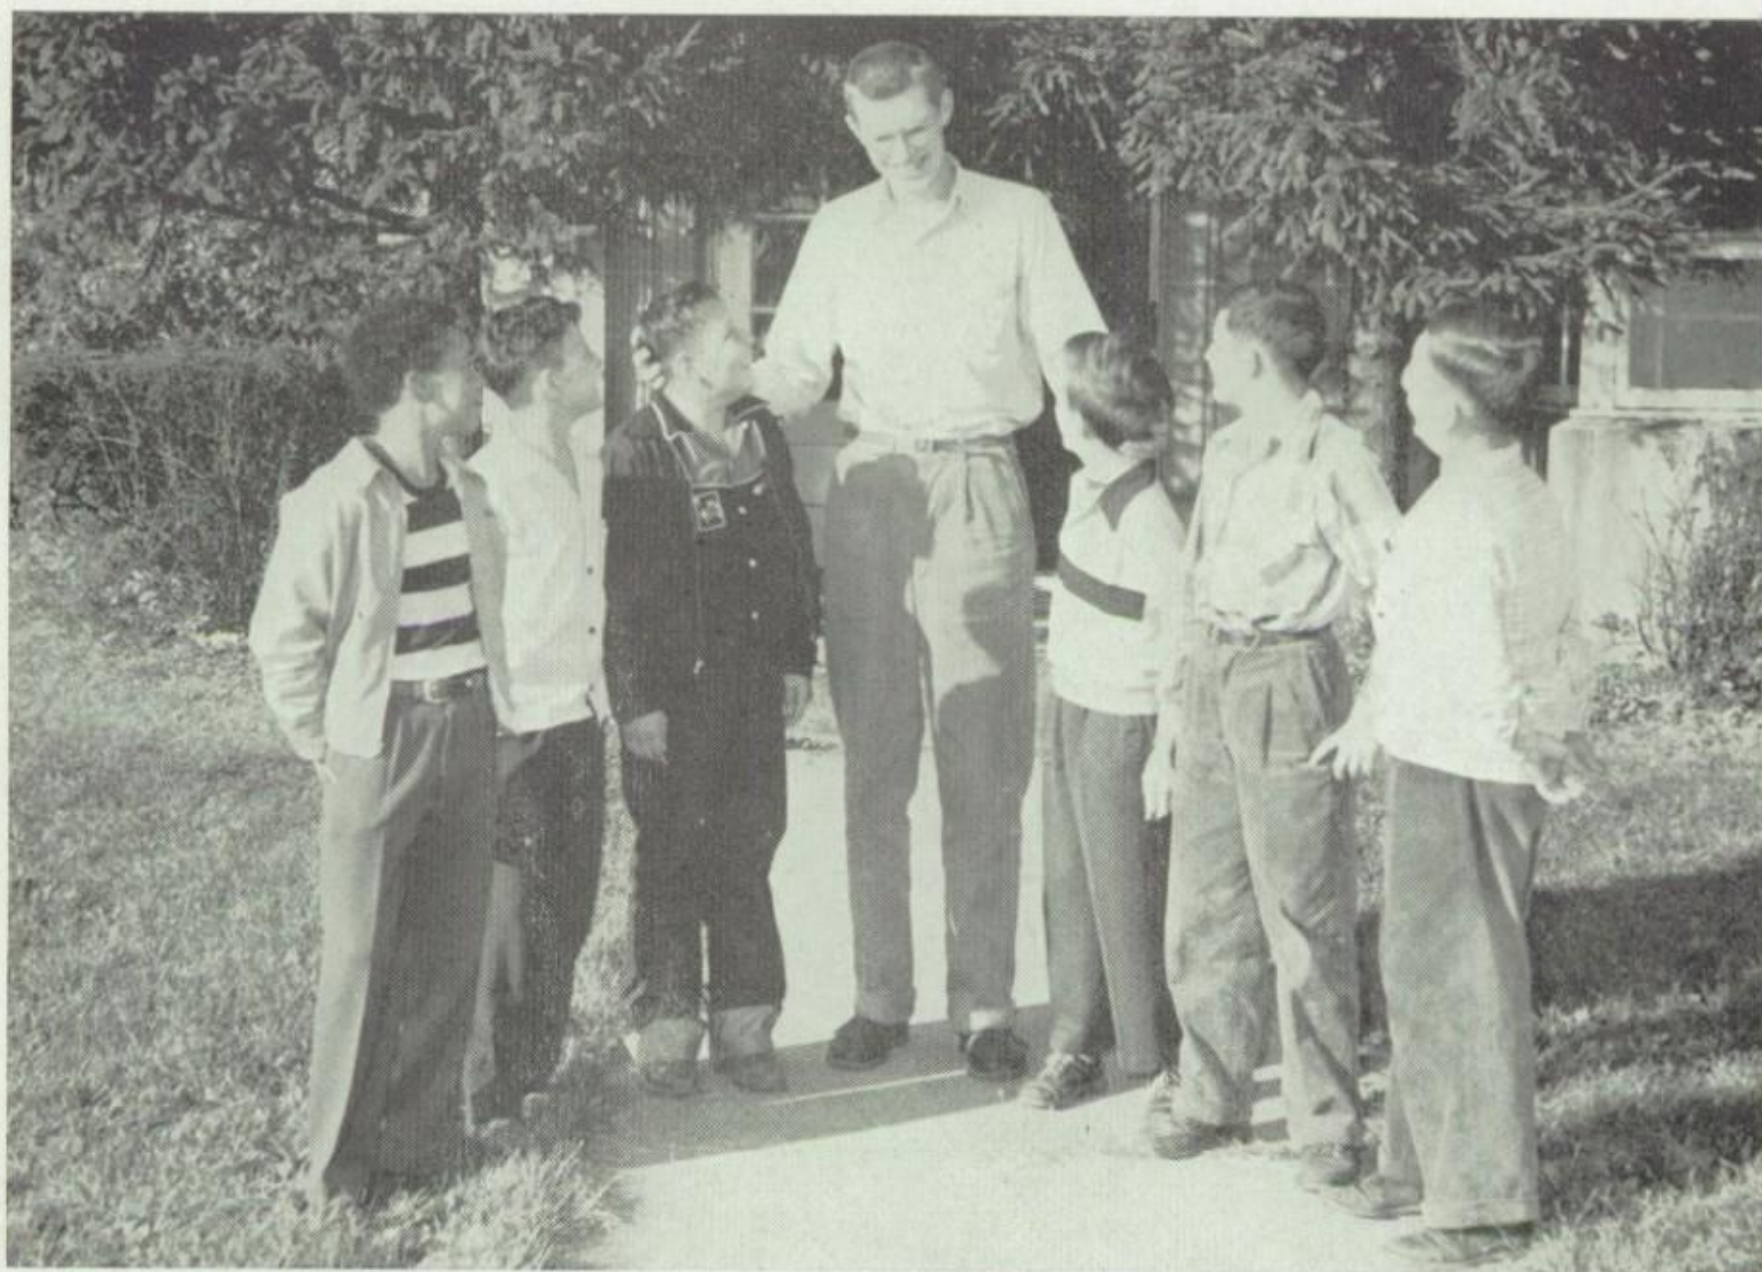

Then there are those with a sweet tooth who are seen in the candy store line.

The coming of the lunch periods also brings dancing on the stage.

There are those who would rather dance than eat for they gulp down their food in a big hurry in order to dance with their friends.

The Long and the Short of It . . .

Wee freshies offered strong contrast to the mighty Senior, Jesse Eiermann, but Eiermann with his height did not daunt the spirit of these freshies, for they know that they too, can grow up in four years. However, most of us as freshmen do look up to the seniors, to their ways and ideas.

Our Principal . . .

As the ambitious leader of Southport High School, Mr. C. C. Leedy gives much of his valuable time to school activities.

It is largely through his steadfast interest in the welfare of the school and its students that Southport has gained its first-class rating in the North Central Association.

ADMINISTRATION

Although each of us interprets the theme in his own individual way, together we form one united body striving to uphold and maintain the ideals of our school.

To be a united body, however, we need something like a magnet to pull us together and to guide us through unfamiliar territory.

This is our administration.

Most of us do not realize the time that they give towards making us happier in our living at Southport. The clubs and classes they sponsor, the parties they plan, the student activities they attend and the knowledge they try to teach us, are all things for which we should be gratified and for which we should always remember them.

Our Trustee . . .

Nelson P. Swift, trustee of Perry Township, has through his progressive administration, obtained the permission to build a new Junior High School which will relieve the over crowded conditions of Southport High School and the grade schools.

It has been Mr. Swift's aim during his term to place Southport at the top of the township schools in the State of Indiana.

Our Deans . . .

During our four years at Southport, we have learned to regard our deans, Miss Penrod and Mr. Kellam, with great admiration. In acting as a bond between the students and the administration, they are sincere, understanding, and always trying to see the best in us.

They give their time freely in helping us to meet our difficult problems and daily needs. It is through their efforts and the rest of the administrations' tireless endeavors that we came, we saw, we conquered.

Seniors . . . 4 Years . . . Victory!!

We elected as our senior officers, John Hurre, president; Charles Rau, vice-president; and Barbara Storey, secretary-treasurer, who were under the guidance of Mr. Robins, class sponsor.

Officers

Four years have swiftly passed and now we are seniors.

We have had our senior pictures taken, have ordered our invitations and cards, have been measured for caps and gowns, have attended the faculty party, have had the senior day program . . . all of these have kept reminding us that this would be our last year. Then came baccalaureate when we got butterflies in our stomachs, not because we were scared but because we knew we were now on our way to graduation.

But as the school hymn goes:

"We will ne'er forget thee, Marching ever on."

we saw . . .

Yes, we saw new faces, many of which were to play a great part in our lives. Extracurricular activities, such as various clubs, parties, dances, and sports, soon began to occupy much of our time outside of our classes. We laughed and cried at the antics and predicaments of the characters in the plays.

Our senior, Jerry Danner, was victorious too, for by some mysterious circumstance the boys brought home the coveted United Nations Flag.

We saw students planning and decorating for our dances. Here it seems to be the Saint Patrick's Jig Dance, which was in March.

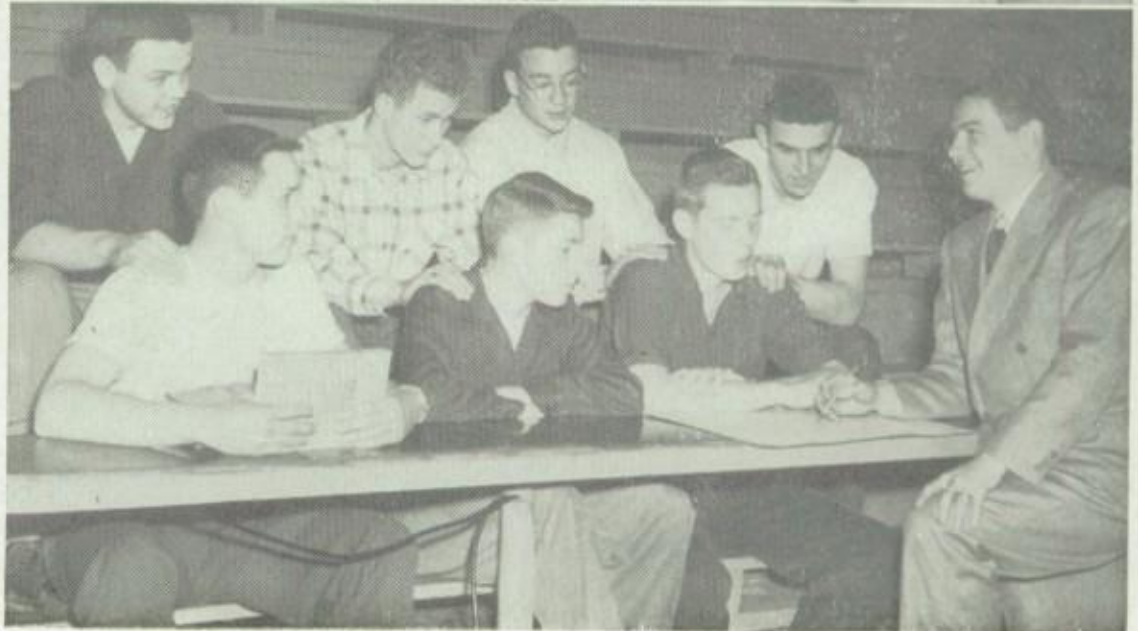

Judging grain was done by the agriculture boys under the guidance of Mr. McCormick. They saw and compared the different grades of grain.

Buy now or regret later was the saying when the Anchor, the yearbook of Southport High School, went on sale. The book serves as a record for all the memorable times spent at Southport.

All boys who are interested in participating in a sport and who are not taking part in play with other schools are eligible to join the intramural teams. There are teams in basketball and baseball and here we see Mr. Morgan and the captains of the intramural basketball teams discussing the rules of the games.

School Council Speaks . . .

The student organization is a service organization for the school and community. Each year it sponsors a magazine drive, a community chest drive, and other worthy causes. The members, composed of one representative from each home room plus the class presidents, meet and discuss problems concerning the general welfare of the students. These ideas are in turn carried back to the individual home rooms to be presented to the rest of the students. This organization, which is under the sponsorship of Mr. Leedy, chooses most of the convocations for the student body. The officers are Jack Wilson, President; Bob Cameron, Vice-President; and Nancy Kortepeter, Secretary-Treasurer.

Thespians Gather . . .

"Will the meeting please come to order?" Every month Bob Cameron, president of the Mask and Gavel Club, opens the meeting with these words. One doesn't have to be a Helen Hayes or a John Barrymore to belong to this club. It is open to all students who have made a public appearance before the club members. It is the purpose of Mrs. Ritchie, club sponsor, to further interest in all types of speech work. With Joan Eberhart as vice-president; Nancy Todd, secretary; Nancy Kortepeter, treasurer; and Laurilla Brown, program chairman this year, the club's ideals have been fulfilled.

Girls and Their Activities . . .

To promote better sportsmanship among the girls is the object of the G.A.A.

Something new added to the activities of this club, which is composed of sophomore, junior, and senior girls, and the Volleyball Intramural League. The Intramural Teams also played several other schools.

Sponsoring the Football Dance, St. Patrick Dance, Spring Athletic Dance, two soc-hops, a Talent Show, Red Cross First Aid Classes, and serving on the Christmas party committee has kept the officers busy. The officers for 1950 were Barbara Campbell, president; Kathryn Dampier, vice-president; Myrna Freels, secretary; and Lois Camic, treasurer.

In order to become a member of this club, a girl must have one year of physical education. To get a medal she must have two years of physical education, belong to G.A.A. for three years, and must participate in seventy-five per cent of the activities.

Mrs. Lucille Miller is G.A.A. sponsor.

Senior-ority for junior and senior girls is closely related in purpose to the Hi-Y Club for boys. Its purpose is to develop the physical, mental, and spiritual sides of each girl's personality and character.

Four meetings are held each year which are, the initiation of new members, Mother and Daughter Banquet, Senior Recognition and an all girl convocation.

Miss Blanche Penrod, the sponsor, is an excellent example of the type of person Senior-ority strives to develop in its members.

The out-going officers are, June Kopp-President, Barbara Storey-Secretary, Anita Williams-Treasurer, Charlotte Weilhammer-Vice-President.

The new officers elected in are, Joan Eder-President, Bertha Davidson-Secretary, Marilyn Winkie-Vice-President, and Judy Martin-Treasurer.

Clubs Present Future Outlooks

««««« F. B. L. A.

Among the activities of the Future Business Leaders of America Club this year were a soc-hop, a skating party, several outside speakers, and the annual picnic at Spring Mill State Park.

Those eligible to be member of the F. B. L. A. must be majoring in commercial subjects. They must make a c+ of above average in business subjects. Each year six sophomores who rank very high in their classes are chosen to enter the club by Mrs. Margaret Janert and Mr. Elwood Miller, who are the sponsors of the club.

The 1950-51 officers are Kathryn Dampier, president; Lois Holsapple, vice-president; Nelda Kirkham, secretary; Bob Stanfield, treasurer; and Audrey Lakey, reporter.

««««« Page and Chapter

From mystery chillers to Shakespeare are the objects of the Page and Chapter Club. This club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Walsman, discusses many types of literature, including all types of books, plays, movies, magazines, Shakespeare, and dramatic readings. The officers are Carolyn Nierman, president; Roberta Voss, vice-president; and Janet Aufderhiede, secretary-treasurer.

««««« Social Club

The Social Club is open to all freshmen. The main purpose of the club is to aid freshmen in adjusting themselves socially. Through well planned programs and the helpful aid of its sponsors, Mrs. Guyer and Mrs. Stevens, an excellent opportunity is made available for its members to learn to dance, develop good manners, and feel socially accepted. The club's main activities this year were a talent show, Christmas party, and dancing classes. The dancing classes were brought to a close with a dance and jitterbug contest. The officers of the club are: Delbert Wilsey—President, Donald Hinds—Vice-President, and Pat Wilson—Secretary-Treasurer.

««««« Junior Leaders

"The trained teaching the untrained," is certainly practiced in the work being done by the Junior Leaders under the sponsorship of Mrs. Lowdermilk, the 4-H Director. These older 4-H girls assist the 4-H leaders in teaching the younger girls to cook and sew, as well as the other basic principals of a good home life. Officers for this year are Lois Rosebrock, President . . . Betty Lampher, Vice-President . . . Barbara Hohn, Secretary-Treasurer.

Boys Show Signs of Activity . . .

"Rain or shine" the Traffic Club boys are always on the job. This organization helps the Southport students and fans by parking cars at all of the major evening events—football and basketball games, the class plays, concerts, and the operetta. Headed by Ray Linson with John Funk and Bill Booth as captains, this club is always ready, regardless of "Old Man Weather."

Guiding the Future Farmers of America Club for the 1950-51 school year is Carl Long, President; Leroy Murphy, Vice-President; Henry Bodenreider, Secretary; Dave Haviland, Treasurer; and Carl Brehob, reporter.

Some of their activities are having a father and son banquet in March, taking a group to the two-day F.F.A. State convention at Purdue, going on a three-day summer camping trip at some state park, meeting with the 4-H clubs for a project tour, and attending two district meetings held at schools in this district.

This club has a regular weekly meeting and one night meeting a month. In the summer the F.F.A. assumes responsibility for running the school farm, and by using the tractor the boys assist in the care and maintenance of the school grounds.

In order to be a member of the F.F.A. a boy must have earned four credits, one of which is in Agriculture, must be voted in by other members. A member also moves up in the club by four different degrees, which are Green Hand, Chapter Farmer, Hoosier Farmer, and American Farmer.

This organization is sponsored by Mr. Earl McCormick.

"Duck for that airplane!" is often the cry heard when the Model Club gets together. Anything, from jet race cars to model houses, that can be built on a small scale is done by these ambitious boys. Under the leadership of Ray Linson with Luther Tyra as President; Walter Lewis, Vice-president; and Ronald Jones, Secretary-Treasurer, all members have an active part in the worthwhile "small-scale" activities.

Future Pedagogues Study Techniques

One of the clubs that has recently been formed at Southport, is the William Lowe Bryan Chapter of the national organization of the Future Teachers of America. Under the direction of Mrs. Jessie Copsey and the sponsorship of the Indiana Central Chapter, this club extends a welcome to all students interested in teaching as a profession. Their purpose is to cultivate a wider interest in teaching and present to its members a true picture of all types of teaching. Their aim was certainly achieved with the fulfillment of this year's excellently planned program. It included talks by college professors, and students, principals, and members of the group who were doing Cadet teaching.

An opportunity to do Cadet teaching is offered to seniors whose programs can be so arranged. This, an elective, two credit course, lasts for half-days of one semester. Leaders this year were Sue Dyer, president, Nancy Kortepeter, vice-president, and Margie Christie, treasurer.

Romans Consult Delphic Oracle

Many questions about the future were answered this year by the Oracle Sybil. This was one of the many events that the Latin Club engaged in this year.

They also observed the Feralia which is Flower Day and occurs in the month of May. They had games and contests in Roosevelt Stadium. Another event was having a Greek boy, Mimis Antonopolous, as a speaker.

Next year the Latin Club will be divided into two divisions, junior and senior. They will have a separate set of officers for each section.

Officers this year who are under the sponsorship of Mrs. Elsa Majors are Roland Nerding, Consul; David Brewer, Pro-consul; Jackie Henry, Quaestor; and Larilla Brown, Aedile.

Helpful Hints Obtained from Clubs

Guiding the Secretaries Club this year are Donna Unversaw, president; Tina Sue Wade, vice-president; Norma Coons, secretary, and Myrtle Banks, treasurer.

The secretaries have been quite busy this year attending their Christmas party and wiener roast, and they had a speaker from the Telephone Company, and demonstrations of a dictaphone and an Indiana Business Machine. Their big event of the year was a style show from Ayers Department Store.

Membership is open to all senior girls who are shorthand and typing students and any underclassmen who work in the office or who are teachers' secretaries.

Among the most important service organizations in school is the Junior Red Cross.

One representative was chosen from each home room. From these members two delegates were elected to represent the Southport chapter in the County organization. These are Carolyn White and Wayne Smith. The alternates are Darlene Bollinger and Glen Hager.

Some of their accomplishments this year have been the filling of Red Cross gift boxes, making centerpieces for Veterans Hospitals, and providing music for the adult Red Cross Drive dinner.

Since this is a service club its aim is for better relationships through personally prepared projects which go to hospitals, service centers, and to foreign countries.

Contributions were entirely used for filling gift boxes. It takes about $1.25 to fill each box. Student representatives have purchased the materials at retail and wholesale stores. Southport is filling 89 boxes to be sent to foreign countries where they will be divided among several children.

The Future Homemakers of America is a National Organization of junior and senior high school students.

All girls who have had one year of training are eligible for membership. Four degrees of achievement are attainable: Junior Homemaker, Chapter Homemaker, State Homemaker, and American Homemaker. The symbols for each are respectively: the key, the scroll, the torch, and the rose. They have the colors red and white; the flower, a red rose, and their motto, "Toward New Horizons."

The purpose of the club is to enlarge and broaden the aspects of class work in homemaking. They have the theory that the home is the basis of all life. The club is sponsored by Mrs. Lowdermilk.

Officers are: Margie Shirley—President, Thelma Merrick — Vice-President, Mary Jane Potter — Secretary, and Tina Sue Wade—Treasurer.

Books, Books, and More Books

Those people whose interest include books, reading, and library work make up the Library Club. The two main events of this year included a State Conference of Student Assistants at Broad Ripple and being entertained by the School Librarians' Discussion Club. Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Alice Black, the club elected Elizabeth Liechty as president and Shirley Riley as secretary-treasurer.

Those girls assisting Mrs. Alice Black in the library this year are Joyce Jones, Geraldine Simmons, Allegra Henry, Marilyn Young, Esther Fisher, Mildred Simpson, Jo Ann Beals, Loretta Coons, Valeria Robinson, Annette Crisler, Carolyn Border, Helen Osborne, Pat Martin, and Marlouise Kleis.

The librarians learn how to classify books, check magazines, and do regular library work.

Two girls assist Mrs. Black each period and two before school in the mornings.

Office Aids

Each year a number of students have the opportunity of gaining practical experience in the business field by working in the office or as a secretary. Running errands, typing, filing, answering the telephone are but a few of the many varied tasks performed by these girls. Here are seen the girls gathered around Mrs. Stevens, the commercial secretary of Southport High School.

Learning Combined With Pleasure

Jerry Danner, Dave Haviland, Bob Eldridge, and Phil George were able to go with Mr. Haviland to New York where they saw the United Nations in action. Later after they returned, they related their experiences, both the sublime and ridiculous incidents, to the student body during a convocation.

Work Conquers All Things

Conjugation of verbs also became a part of our lives at Southport. Mrs. Jesse Copsey attempts to teach her freshmen some of the facts of English.

"To be or not to be? That is the question."

These students of debate under the guidance of Mrs. Kathleen Ritchie present questions for discussion and give them a thorough going over.

Fortes fortuna adiuuat.

What does it mean! These junior and seniors know, for they are busy at study in their second year Latin course under the instruction of Mrs. Elsa Majors.

Places for Learning

Study hall, the place for buckling down to work, is a busy place. Here Southport students study together in order to conquer their goals.

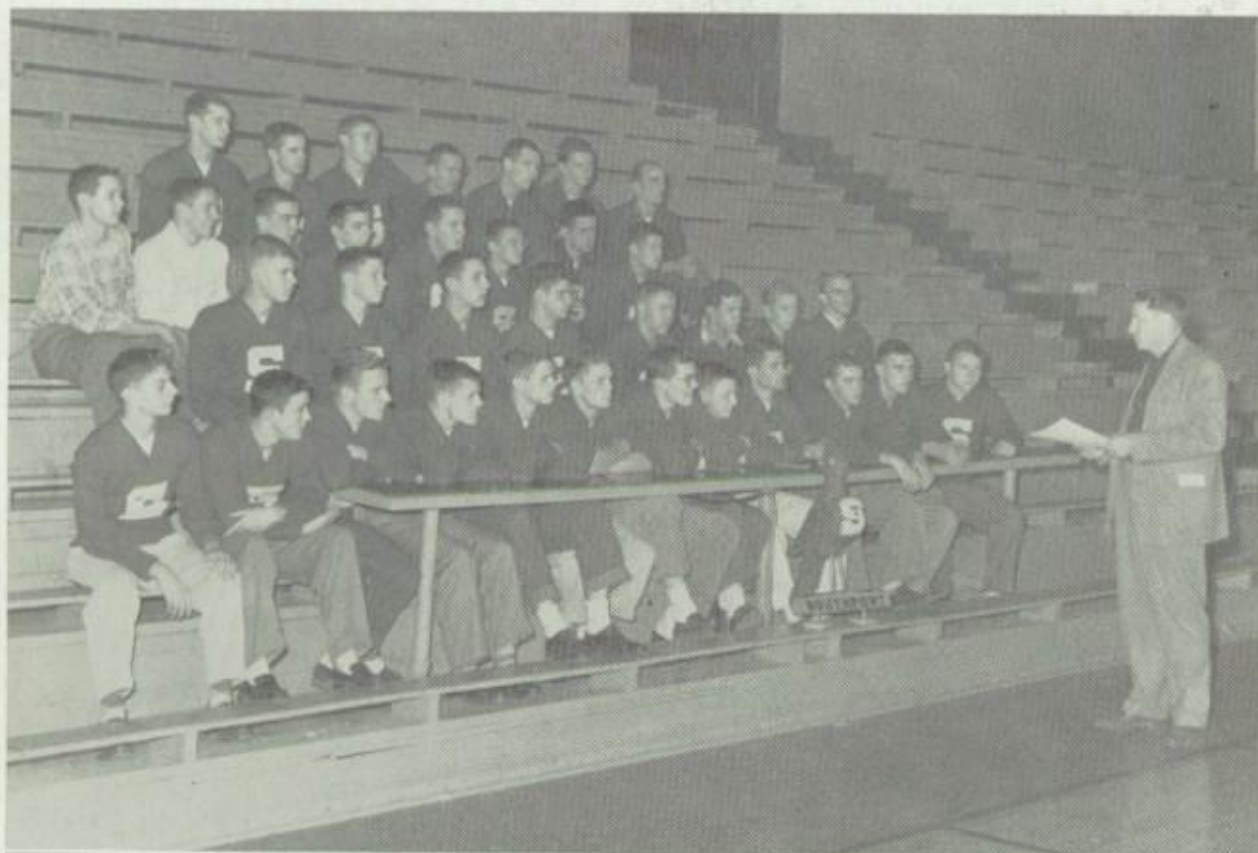

Reference books in the library are a big help to those doing research work, and Mrs. Black is always willing to help you find what you are looking for, from newspapers to encyclopedias.

Shop boys are busy at work on their projects. Some of these projects include cedar chests, end tables, lamps, whatnots, book-ends, book cases, telephone stands, and record holders.

Service is Their Motto

One of the most useful clubs in the school is the Letterman's Club. The membership requirement, of course, is that one earn a letter in one or more sports. Although the club is only honorary, due to the disbandment of the club last year, the boys perform useful duties. They usher at basketball games and help to collect donations for needy organizations at the games. Jewell Young is the sponsor.

"Clean Speech, Clean Sports, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living are four things for which the Hi-Y chapter of Southport strives.

The Hi-Y Club is sponsored by Mrs. Clarence Liechty. The officers are Wilbur Craig, President;; Charles Rathsmann, Vice-President; Ray Johnson, Secretary; Clyde Howlett, Treasurer; Walter Lewis, Chaplain; and Leonard Hartley, Sergeant-at-arms.

Among their activities this year were sponsoring a paper drive, skating party, sending delegates in February to the Older Boy's Conference at Elkhart, Indiana and to the World Congress of Hi-Y and Tri-Y Clubs at Cleveland. They also sent clothes to Korea.

Music Music

Many of the special programs at Southport this year were enriched by the singing of the robed choir. Among these were the Thanksgiving and Christmas convocations, the Christmas Alumni Dance, the Easter Sunrise Service, and the graduation exercises.

Representatives from the music department also participated in the annual music contests and won twenty-one first division ratings at the state contest.

Early in the spring the choir gave a concert of sacred music at the University Heights E.U.B. Church and also sent a delegation to the Marion County and Indiana State Choral Festivals.

Several ensembles were formed this year which sang for special community functions, including P.T.A. meetings, women's meetings, and grade school programs.

These high stepping gals added color to ball games and band shows. This year, besides marching with the band, they did several shows at the ball games and also performed for the polio benefit at Bluff Avenue Grade School. This twirling ensemble, consisting of Marjorie Christie, Carolyn Critchlow, Joyce Van Deman, Jody Haines, Shirley Calloway and Gayle Walters. These girls have won top honors many times in the district and state solo and ensemble contests.

WE CAME . . . . As scared freshies we entered the band where everything was new to us . . . . the fancy football shows . . . . playing for the Thanksgiving and Christmas convos . . . . learning our school song under the patient direction of Ivan Warble . . . . playing for the pep sessions . . . . participating in the annual commencement program.

WE SAW . . . . As time progressed, we saw and participated in more of the band's activities . . . . the band clinics at Decatur Central . . . . complicated basketball shows decorated with our new lights . . . . slaving away for concerts and festivals.

We also had our troubles . . . . discovering a light was broken five minutes before the show . . . . trying to find lost music . . . . attempting to untangle the shoulderbraid on the uniforms . . . . lugging those heavy instruments out to the football field for practice.

WE CONQUERED . . . . At last the triumph was ours . . . . the concert after weeks of practice . . . . all the honors we won in the solo and ensemble contests . . . . the first division rating in the band contest at Indiana University . . . . and at last the final triumph of commencement for our seniors—Wilbur Craig, Allegra Henry, Nan Liechty, Walter Lewis, and Eugene Wilson.

Every day during the sixth period, the string ensemble practices for various events. Despite such calamities as broken strings and lost music, they have practiced faithfully under the patient direction of Ivan Warble.

They have given performances for a graduation tea at one of the local churches, a dinner at the Masonic Lodge, and several class plays. They have also been on the program for the P.T.A. several times. This year it's goodbye for seniors Lois Fort and Charlotte Carter.

One of the most awaited performances of the year was the annual operetta. This year, under the direction of Miss Virginia Bower, the ambitious vocalists staged "The Pirates of Penzance," a popular pirate satire and one of the most melodious operas written by the beloved team, Gilbert and Sullivan.

We cannot forget that in this opera occur the songs, "Oh, Better Far to Live and Die," "When a Felon's Not Engaged in His Employment," and "Sighing Softly to the River," which rank with Gilbert and Sullivan's best later works.

The cast included Shirley Reed, Glen Hager, Clyde Howlett, Marvin Chilton, Pat Buckner, Gene Wilson, Bob Cameron, Patsy Grow, Lois Ramsey, and Gertrude Crumrine. Roberta Voss acted as student director.

Last year the music department presented "Icabod Crane," in which Clyde Howlett, Betty Nabring, Glen Hager, and Martha Osborn had the leads. Supporting roles were played by Ed Raymann, James Howard, Jean Turner, Norma Harms, and John T. Martin.

Glenn Hager, in the role of the dashing Brom Bones, and the chorus of Dutch girls sing in this scene from Ichabod Crane, which is based on Washington Irving's famous "Legend of Sleepy Hollow." Mrs. Lugenbill, the director of the operetta, is shown in the foreground.

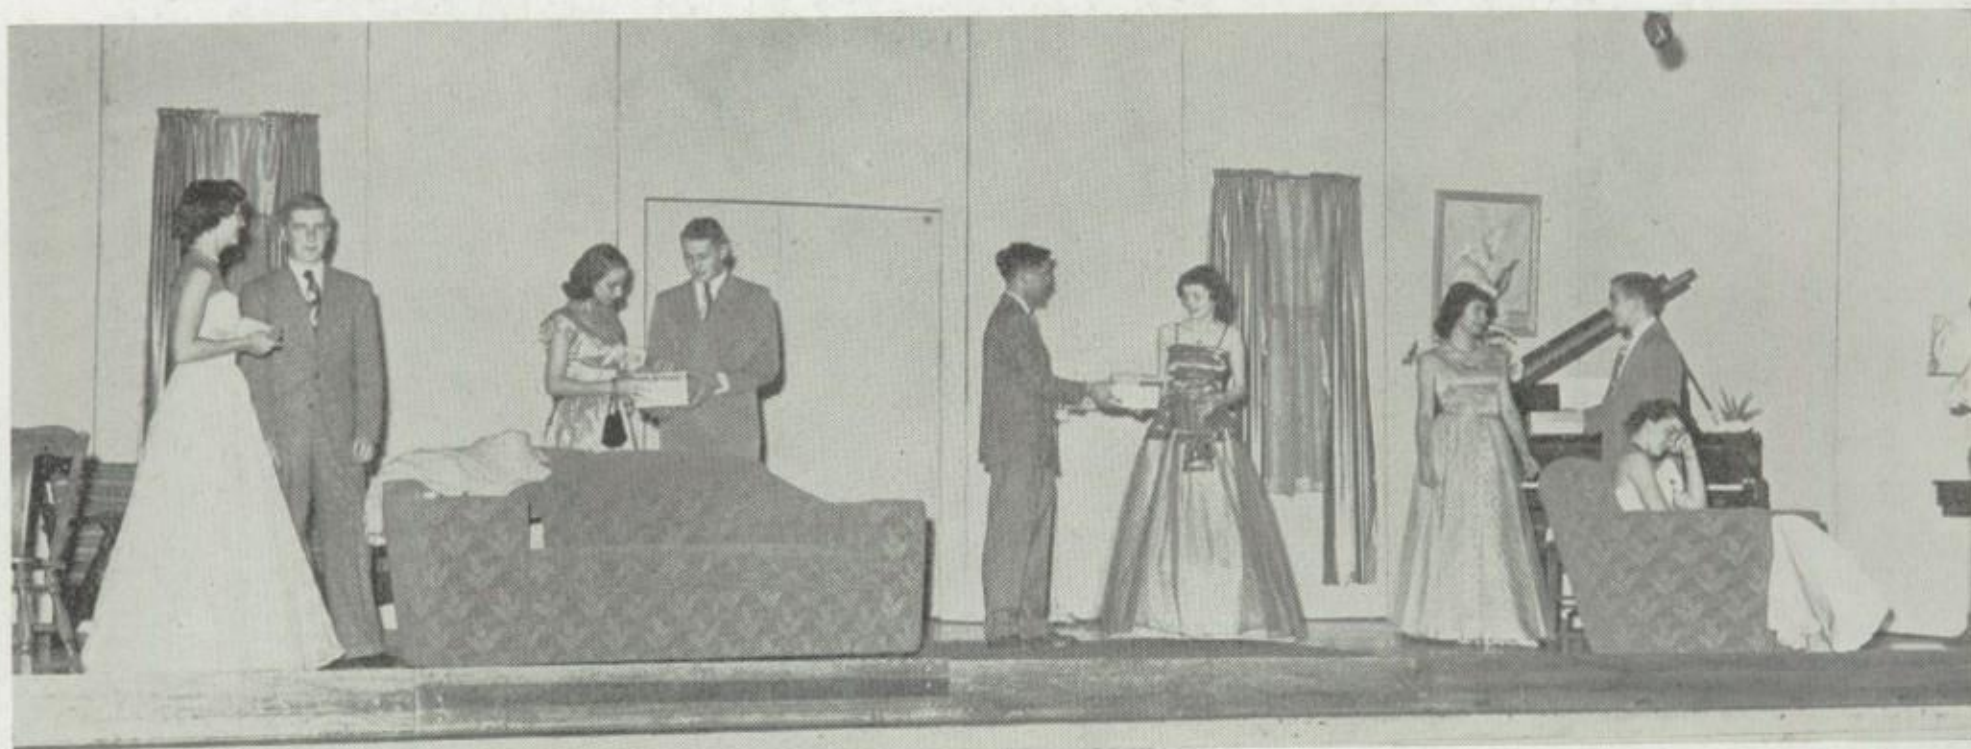

These members of the ever-necessary production staff help make up the characters for the performance. Their work helped make the operetta a success.

Behind The Footlights . . .

1950-51 Thespians brought to the footlights "Mother Was A Freshman," directed by Mrs. Elsa Majors.

These showmen proved themselves worthy of their parts through the many hours of rehearsals.

To the right Mother and Daughter, Lyndal Reed and Larilla Brown rehearse a scene for the "Big Senior Production" of the year.

There is no better feeling that can come to an actor than that of a successful performance and these "Senior's" lowered their curtain proudly.

*“Our Hearts
Were Young
Gay”*

The Juniors raised their curtain on "Our Hearts Were Young And Gay" under the direction of Mrs. Kathleen Ritchie.

Oh, what hours of sweat comes from a dress rehearsal, but oh, what fun!

Fun? Was it fun when the lights went out, when the bunk beds fell through? Ask these Juniors, they will tell you.

But nevertheless, with butterflies in their stomachs, these thespians pushed through with success.

Dramatics brought forth much talent from the Juniors that night.

Easter Sunrise Service

"The Day of Resurrection" is celebrated annually by the churches and schools in Perry Township. This fourteenth Easter Sunrise Service had as its theme "Death is swallowed up in Victory." Miss Blanche Penrod was the General Chairman with the various ministers of the township acting as narrators carrying the service forth in splendor. The Junior, Youth, and Senior Choirs presented music for the different divisions of the Praises of the Children, Praises of Youth, Praises of Maturity, and Prayer for Peace. A new attraction this year was the verse choir directed by Mrs. Kathleen Ritchie which presented "I Would Be True."

Bob Cameron and Robert Anderson were the soldiers, Pat Buckner and Lyndal Reed, the women, and Marilyn Hohn, the angel, serving for the third consecutive year in the annual tomb scene.

FACULTY ENTERTAINS SENIORS . . .

Highlighting the years spent at Southport High School is the faculty party when the teachers forget their dignity by "letting their hair down."

This is an evening never to be forgotten. It has been a traditional event since 1930 when the old high school was moved to the new building, at its present location.

Our Activities During the Year

Since 1949, Southport High School has celebrated the Christmas season by decorating the front of the building. This has been made possible through the work and co-operation of the art department, the shop boys, and the capable director, Miss Blanche Penrod, as well as the entire school body as a whole. This was financed by the various organizations of the school.

We are proud of this project and hope that it may continue in the future years.

Four years at Southport may seem a small percentage of the years of your life but they are four years that will stay with you forever.

After we graduate we will remember all the planning of the decorations, the refreshments, and the entertainment for the biggest dance of all, the Junior, Senior Reception.

Seniors await this big night when the juniors honor them with this dance. The Pagan Love Song was the theme for 1951. They decorated with palm trees, a pond, bamboo fence, and moon and stars.

This represented and brought to life scenes of the South Sea Islands.

Frank Willard provided the music for this occasion. During the floor show entertainment was presented by the Arthur Jordan Conservatory students.

Soon we will become homesick for this Prom, the Graduation Dance, and then too the cheeseburgers we got at the Circle when the dances were at an end.

To help keep a lasting memory of these wonderful times, pictures were taken of couples by the Epply Photographers.

SPORTS

Jane Nelson, Anita Williams, Kathryn Dampier, Marilyn Hohn, and Joyce Ulrey are our Yell Leaders.

When Southport fans think of sports, they automatically think of the ever-loyal yell leaders. We see their many and varied stunts and routines which take much practice. They act as the magnet, which pulls together hundreds of individuals into a unified student body with two objectives—to have good sportsmanship—and to win.

Southport Athletic Staff

These six members of the faculty, who make up the Cardinal coaching staff, are examining one of the many trophies which have come into the school's possession through the years. The trophies, now have a new housing. The case was purchased through the profits of the 1950 magazine drive and was installed early in the school year.

Beginning at the left we have Chauncey McDaniels, line coach for the football team and also the coach of the state champion wrestling team. This achievement won Chauncey a big feather for his hat.

The freshman basketball coach, who owns quite an enviable record of leading teams to the Butler Fieldhouse, is Lester Routh.

Kenny Wasson is head football coach and reserve basketball coach. He led the pigskinners to last year's record season.

Next comes the athletic director, Jewell Young. He is also varsity basketball and golf coach. Incidentally golf is a newcomer to SHS due to the entrance of the school into S.C.C.

The baseball coach, Ray Linson who is holding the trophy, has compiled quite a record as momentos of the diamond sport. Ray has coached the baseballers to numerous wins and has never had a team finish lower than second in county play for the trophy. His teams have copped 7 out of 13 county championships in his tenure at SHS.

Last comes the latest addition to the staff, Jack Morgan, who is a second year man. Jack is freshman football coach, and sponsor of the Intramural program.

Seniors on the Gridiron . . .

Grid Notes . . . .

It wasn't because of a lack of good athletics, but the football cards just weren't stacked right for the Cards of '51. The first game was with Warren Central . . . . the teams walked off the field after a scoreless tie. Their first setback came when Ben Davis invaded Cardinalland and went home with an 18 to 7 victory. The Cards kept up with Howe until the second half of the game when they just couldn't get a hold of Ahearn. Howe won 32 to 13. In their first South Central opposition Kenny Wasson's charges dropped a close one 19 to 13. Southport's next opponent was Lawrence Central. Lawrence swept past the Cards 18 to 0. Jim Nyers of Manuel was too much for the Card grid team, and Manuel won 19 to 6. In the next game the team met their toughest opponent of the year, Cathedral. The Irish ran over the Cards by a score of 41 to 0. The tide changed when Columbus came to Southport. The Cards showed new spirit and dumped the visitors 6 to 0 in a close one. Southport was next host to Decatur Central and defeated them by a 12 to 6 score. In the final game of the season the team ventured to Connersville on a very wet and cold night. The Cards showed the best spirit and skill of the season and dumped Connersville 19 to 2. After the game the seniors who had played their final high school football game, were really glad to have that win so they could show their true emotions. They raced for the end of the football field and one by one dove and slid in a large mud puddle. Even though the team had a losing season, the boys showed what they were made of in the last three games. The team left the field without a dry stitch of clothing on them, but they were indeed a smiling and happy lot.

Although the Cardinals couldn't schedule enough teams to appear in the South Central Conference standing, they won two out of three conference games, and the future looks good for the Cardinal teams of years to come.

The First Twelve

Going into Sectional play the Cards of '51 had a 10 and 9 record. The record wasn't too impressive but the boys looked good against some top state competition. In the first year of South Central Conference competition, the Cardinals finished second only to Columbus with a six won and two lost record. They defeated Franklin, Greensburg, Seymour, Shelbyville, Martinsville, and won by a forfeit over Rushville; only Connersville and conference champion Columbus swept past the Cards. The Cardinals also won two out of three county games. All three games were played on the home floor. Southport dropped a rough Franklin Township team and Warren Central fell before a Cardinal barrage. A surprising Ben Davis team outlasted the Cards in the last county game of the regular season. Against city competition the Cards just broke even. They lost the first two to Washington and Shortridge, and then made up for a football loss to Cathedral, sweeping past the Irish on their home floor and slipped past a highly rated Howe team. In the season's other three games the Cards dropped a two pointer to Elwood, a one pointer to defending state champion Madison, and a fourteen pointer to a strong Center Grove five. In the county tourney, the Cards couldn't get going and dropped their first game to Franklin Township, whom they had defeated earlier in the year, by a 55 to 42 score. The Cardinals got sweet revenge in the sectionals when they crushed Washington by a 19 point margin, 71 to 52, and slipped past Shortridge in a squeaker 44 to 42. Howe ended the Cardinal season in an afternoon game with a 52 to 42 defeat. The Cardinals outscored their opponents in every quarter except the third when they were held scoreless from the field and got only four at the charity strip.

Track and the Cards of the Future . . . .

Three of Southport's key track men are Bill Byrum, Pick Ellis and Roland Nerding, all lettermen. Here we find them pictured along with Jewell Young, the retiring track coach and Jack Morgan, his successor to the post.

One of the consistently good Cardinal teams which one hears too little of is coach Kenny Wasson's inhabitants of the preliminary game at Cardinal basketball gathering.

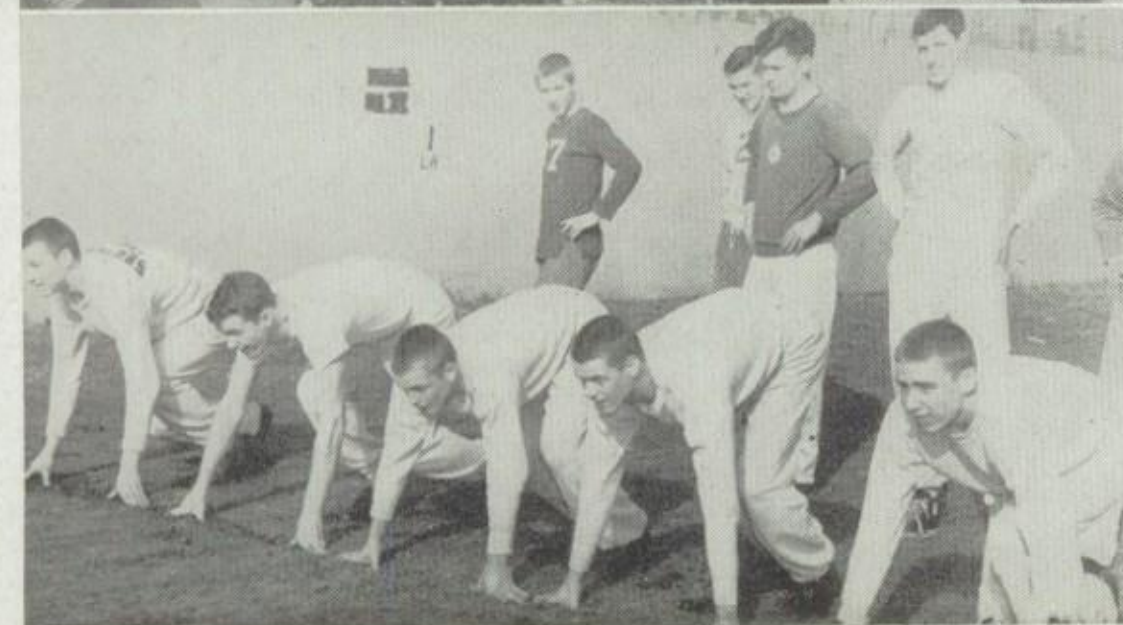

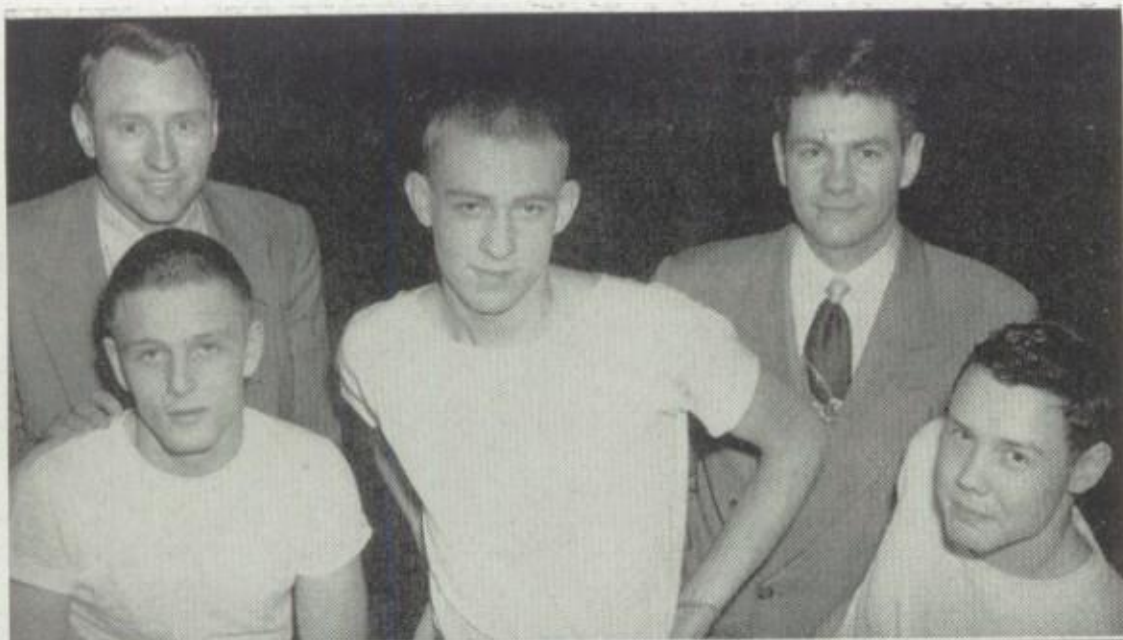

The Reserves copped their first 6 consecutive games, lost one, won one, and dropped another before winning five more in a row. They then lost three straight to Columbus, Howe and Martinsville before triumphing in their last contest. This produced a 13-5 mark for the Wassonmen.

The "freshies" after a running start slowed down to a walk and finished with a 6 won 12 lost record. However, the "little Cards" just missed a crack at the county title at Butler by losing a playoff game to Ben Davis by 20-17.

A few Southport harriers who reported to new coach Jack Morgan are shown here listening for the crack of the gun. These Cardinal thinlyclads plus the many other reportees were molded into this year's track team.

Dick Ellis, Roland Nerding, Lee McGathey, and Bill Byrum returned from the 1950 squad which was unable to win a single dual meet all year. However, the Cards mustered up all their energies to place second in the county meet for the second consecutive year.

The Baseball Squad . . . .

After having conquered county opposition for two county titles in a row, last year's squad finished second to Decatur Central.

Coach Linson's boys got off to a bad start by falling before Ben Davis 5 to 4. This same thing happened five more times in the next eight games as the Cards were able to triumph only three times in the first nine contests. However, a change was in line and the baseballers swept their last five straight by defeating Warren Central, Howe, Garfield of Terre Haute, Washington, and Connersville.

Our 1951 Cardinal nine is competing for the South Central Conference baseball championship due to the league's action of accepting Southport as the ninth member.

Action with S.C.C. schools last year consisted of three games. Those were a one run loss to Columbus, another loss to Greensburg and an 8 to 7, one run triumph over Connersville.

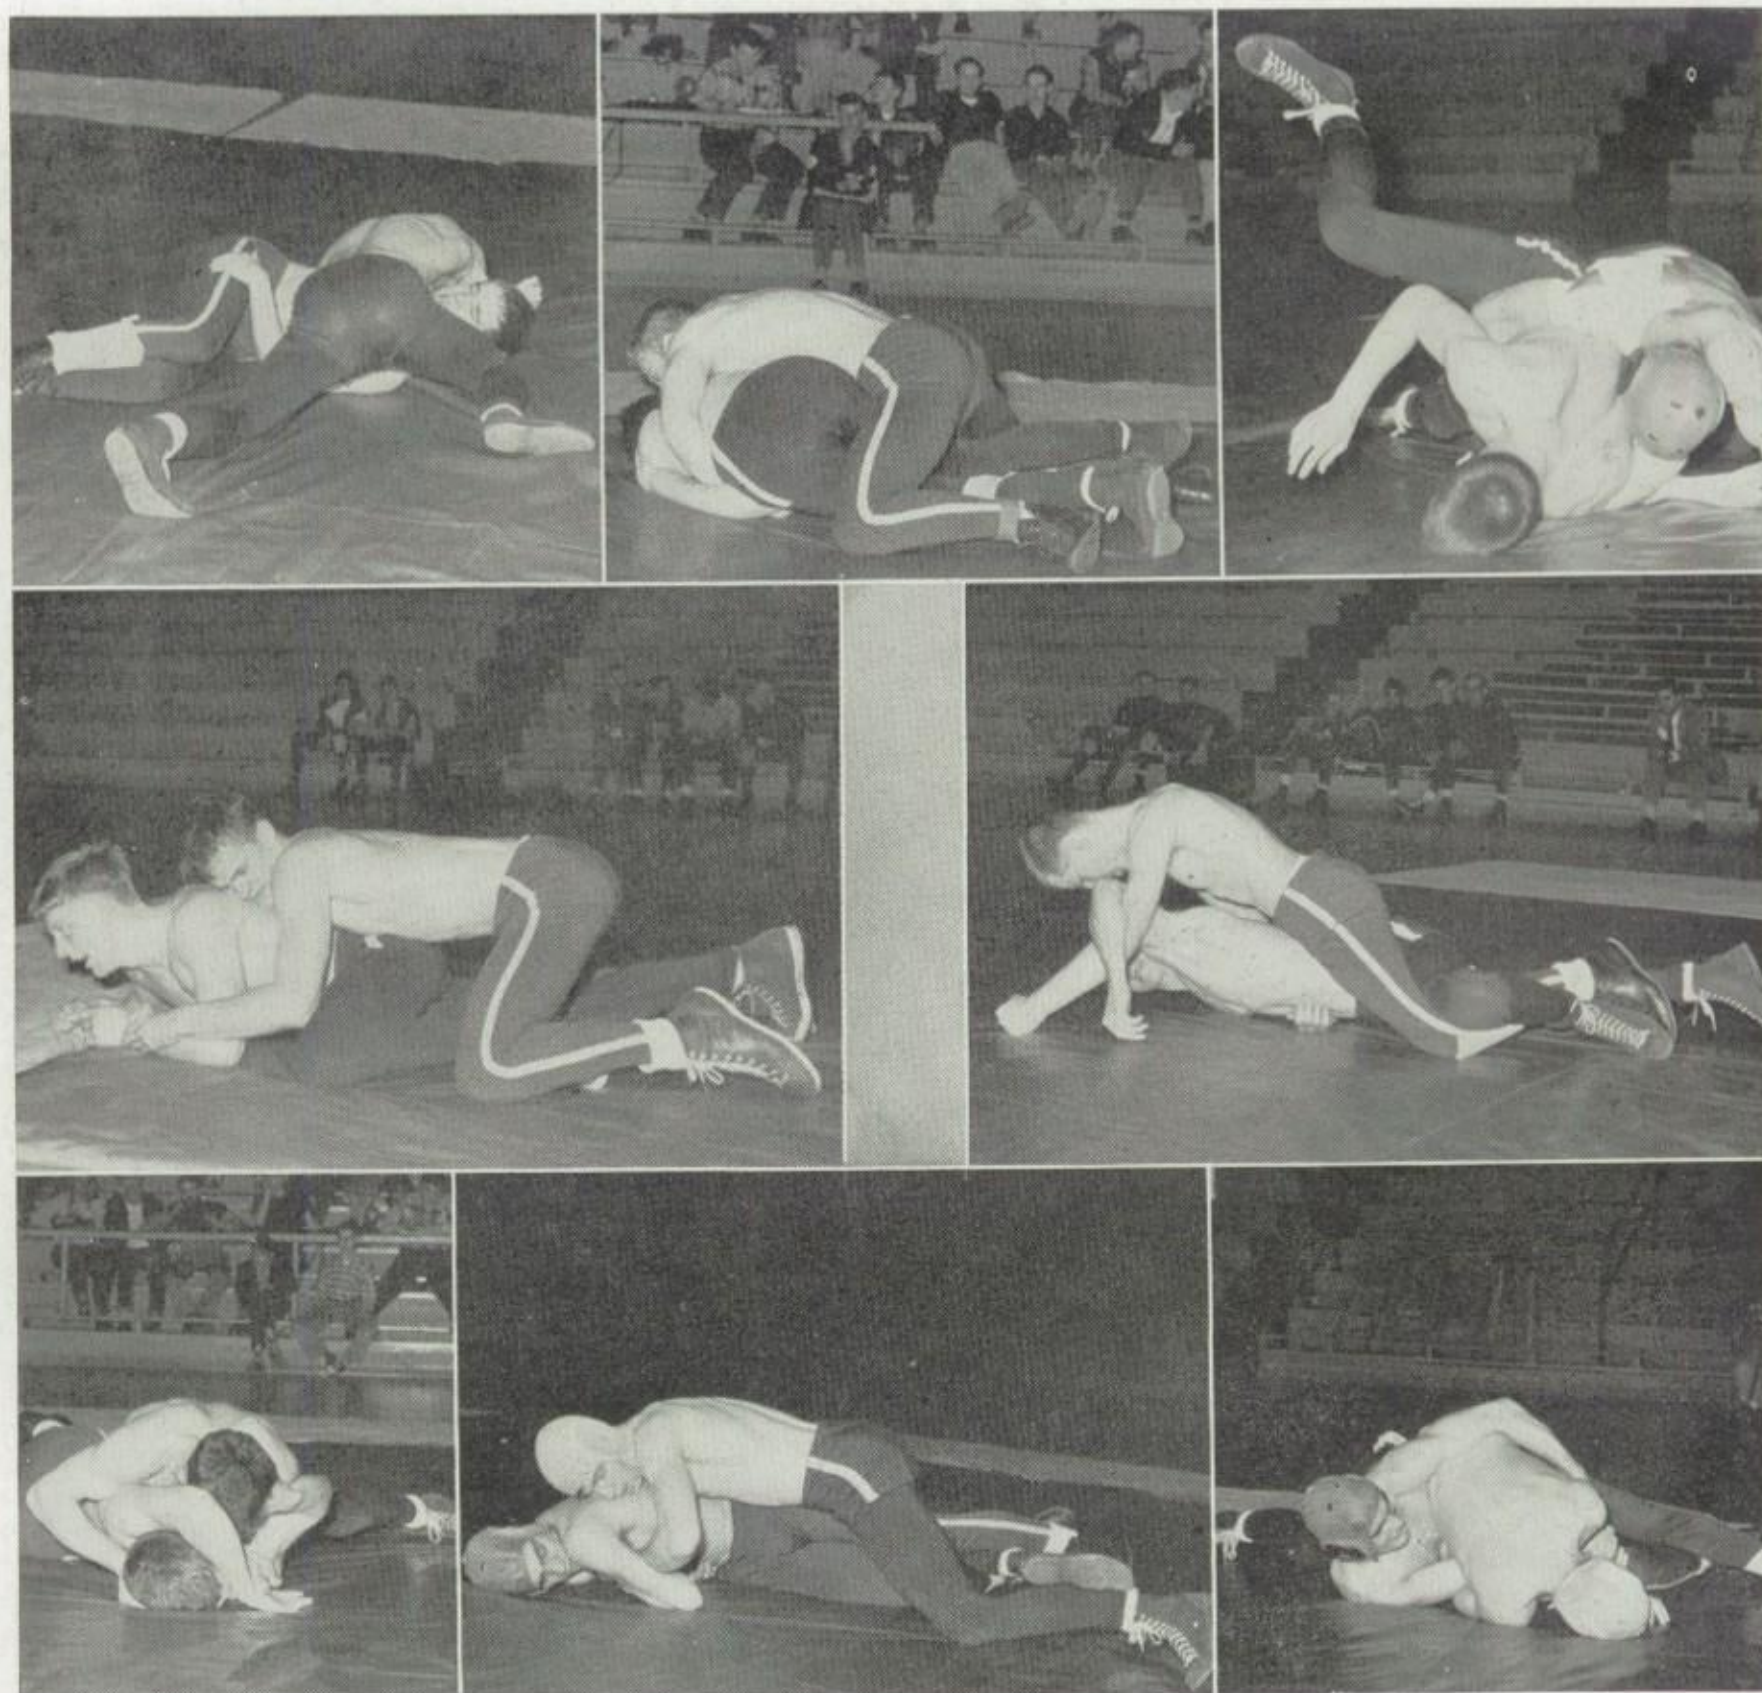

Returning lettermen for this year's campaign were Don Johnson and Jim Whitaker, catchers, Tom Paddock, center fielder and last year's leading hitter with a .525 batting mark, John Martin, Roland Nerding, and Jerry Danner, Infielders, and Gordie Miner, the only holdover pitcher.

Undefeated In Indiana

When Chauncey McDaniels first talked to his wrestling team at the beginning of the season, he told them exactly what they were going to do. The team did just that; they won the state wrestling tourney.

The high-flying Cardinals lost only one dual meet all year, and it took an out-of-state team, Champaign, Illinois, to do it. The only other loss the team suffered was to Shortridge by one point in the Marion County tourney.

Southport's matmen got revenge when they ran away from all opposition, including second place Shortridge in the sectional meet. The Cardinals won eight individual championships thus qualifying them for the state tourney.

Taking probably the school's most balanced team of all time into the state tourney, the Cardinals took their eight sectional champs to the finals. Without taking a single individual state championship, the team totaled 27 points, enough to bring to Southport the two and one-half foot state championship trophy.

The following wrestlers took second place in the tourney: Harry Rasdale at 97 lbs., Ronnie Baumgart wrestling in the 114 lb. class, Jerry Grummell, wrestling at 140 lbs., Tom Scherschel, weighing in at 167 lbs., and in the night's closest match, John Hurtle at 175 placed second by dropping a referees decision to Bob Languell of Bloomington's retired (forceably) state champs. Those placing third in the tourney were: at 105 lbs., Al Morgan, Maurice Rice in the 129 lb. class, and Bob Pence, at 147, who won his third place, wrestling with a cracked rib.

Helping to make the season the success it was, were four other "first stringers," Bill Parsons, Charles Rau, Jim Whitaker, and Dick Weddle.

Coach Chauncey McDaniels has the promise of another good season next year when he will have Harry Rasdale, Al Morgan, Ronnie Baumgart, and Dick Weddle back on the team.

We Conquered!

We conquered . . . During our four years at Southport High School we have conquered many of the obstacles which seemed so great to us when we were freshmen. Triumphs in athletics, scholastic achievements, and experiences in social activities have highlighted our high school life.

Now that we have our mortar boards and are leaving Southport High School at the end of our four years, we know that we shall always remember it and the little battles fought and won here.

Pat Buckner and Mary Lou Trotter were among the students who represented the school in district and state solo and ensemble contests. Mary Lou Trotter won a first division rating on a piano solo in both contests. Pat Buckner, who also played a piano solo, won a first division rating in the district contest and a second division in the state.

This trophy now stands in the trophy case as a reminder that our 1951 Wrestling squad under coach Chauncey McDaniels conquered all comers in the state meet held at Bloomington.

For six years in a row the Bloomington Panthers had copped this annual event until Mac and his boys showed up this year. Incidentally Coach "two-bits" Myers of Bloomington was one of Chaunce's class mates at I. U.

The eight members of the grappling team which went to Bloomington placed as follows: Harry Rasdale, Ronnie Baumgart Jerry Grummell, Tom Scherschel, and John Hurrell took second as Al Morgan, Maurice Rice, and Bob Pence placed third. Of the eight Southport got no individual first places however, no one placed fourth either to provide the team balance which won the championship.

Team scoring went like this for the tourney: East Chicago Washington, 3, Hammond Clark, 4, Crawfordsville, 7, Shortridge, 9, Indianapolis Tech, Decatur Central, and East Chicago Roosevelt tied for sixth with 13, Bloomington the dethroned champ had 16 for fifth place, Lafayette Jefferson took fourth while accumulating 18 points, Hammond Tech was third on a 19 point total, South Bend Central scored 23 to give the Cards a scare and finally the new State Champions wound up with 27, three ahead of the runnerups.

Some Of Our Conquests And

The Southport chapter of the Honor Society is a non-active organization.

Only fifteen per cent of each class is taken into this National organization which is established all over the country.

To become a member of this organization one must rank in the upper third of the class. Members are inducted in three installments, once at the end of the junior year and at the beginning and end of the senior year.

Two initiations are put on each year. In the fall it is held before the student body, and in the spring it is given for the parents and faculty.

Four things determine whether one is taken in or not. They are student ranking, scholarship, activities, and personality.

The officers of this organization are Charles Rau, president; Bob Pence, vice-president; and Nancy Todd, secretary-treasurer. Miss Helen Chandler is the sponsor.

As the second semester rolls around, Southport students are seen canvassing from house to house for magazine subscriptions. The goal which was conquered this year was $5,000. This money is to buy automatic-setting clocks for each home room that reached their goal and to help the band defray their expenses.

Shirley White and Fred Kottkamp were high girl and high boy in this year's contest and each received an additional $10 besides the regular commission. Runner-ups were Gretchen Lee, Wilma Willey, David Need, and Bob Spivey. It seems the girls surpassed the boys in salesmanship this year for the three highest individuals in the school were the above three girls.

Victories

Alcohol, the problem of the U. S. To encourage the study of this problem, an essay contest was held. Those who participated were Dave Haviland, Nancy Todd, Lyndal Reed, Nan Liechty, and Barbara Hohn. Prizes were won by Barbara Hohn and Lyndal Reed.

These students represented Southport in the Voice of Democracy contest sponsored by the American Legion. Their essays were chosen in the first eliminations, which entitled them to give their essays as speeches in the contest. They are Jan Zigler, Sue Burris, and Allegra Henry. Sue was one of the two winners in this round and progressed to the final district eliminations.

Patients in Southport psychopathic ward? No, just a group of dramatic students practicing their readings for a contest at Ball State Teacher's College. They are Pat Buckner, Glenn Hager, Allegra Henry, Larilla Brown, and Joan Griffith. Glenn received a rating of third place in the state for his reading.

Perry News Staff

The staff this year under the leadership of Miss Marie Fraser is Jackie Henry, editor-in-chief; Don Watson, associate editor; Pat Buckner and Lois Camic, assistant editors; Frances Whitaker, news editor; Wayne Speedy, sports editor; Bill Parson, assistant sports editor; Molly Robinson, cartoonist; and Audrey Lakey, typist.

The Peggy Nabring Memorial Award is given in honor of Peggy Nabring, former editor, each year to the prospective editor of the next school year. This award is a trip to the Indiana High School Journalism Institute for two weeks in July that is held at Indiana University. Last year, Jackie Henry received the award.

On The Lighter Side . . . .

Dana Bailey and Lois Camic were the girls who canvassed about the township to get ads for the Anchor and the Perry News.

One of the most entertaining activity periods throughout the year is the Senior and underclassman game. This annual contest puts the Seniors, coached by Kenny Wasson, against all returning basketball boys. Jewell Young, varsity coach, is the underclassmen mentor. The Seniors won this years event.

"Beware the ghosts and goblins." This was the phrase heard at the Senior Halloween party. These six girls came dressed as a family. They are Joyce Jones, Neidra Miller, Kitty Echols, Barbara Campbell, Myrtle Banks, and Judy Schmidt. The baby is drinking from a large bottle of Fehr's beer while riding in her baby carriage.

All year round the Anchor staff, one of the most important organizations of the school, is working diligently either by making money to help pay for the year book or by preparing the book itself. The much needed capital is obtained in part by selling ice cream and stationery. The staff is composed of junior and senior students and is sponsored by Mrs. Elsa Majors.

The staff of the 1951 Anchor is composed of editor, Joan Eberhart; co-editor, Nan Liechty; Club editors, Jackie Henry and Lois Fort; Sports editors, Wayne Speedy and Don Watson; Music editors, Pat Buckner, Roberta Voss, and Allegra Henry; Art, Diane Liechty and Evelyn Meier; Evelyn designed the 1950 cover of the Anchor and Diane the 1951 cover; Ads, Jo Ann Griffith and Dana Bailey; Business Managers, Charles Rau and Jerry Danner; Photography, Epply Photographers, Ronnie Brooks, and Clyde Combs; Typists, Betty Burch, Lois Newland, and Lyndal Reed.

Working with the editors on the senior staffs were Nancy Todd, Charlotte Weilhammer, Annette Crisler, and Janet Carr.

Junior understudies on this year's staff included Janet Aufderheide and Nancy Sponsel.

Sales staff included: Marilyn Hohn, Marilyn Weinke, Dottie Neel, Sue Dyer, Carolyn Nierman, Judy Martin, Helen Kay Harris, Bettie Harris, Jerry Hughes, Jan Zigler, who sold the most stationery, Caroline Catobius, Darlene Bollinger, Neva Jean Florence, Don Merrifield, June Brown, Mildred Ackerman, Carolyn Waldkoetter, Gretchen Lee, Betty Williams, Barbara Hibner, Joyce Van Deman, Sue Burris, Joann Baker, Donna Winchester, Pat Turner, Pat Kriner, Jo Ann Elsea, Janet Hoffmark, and Dick Need.

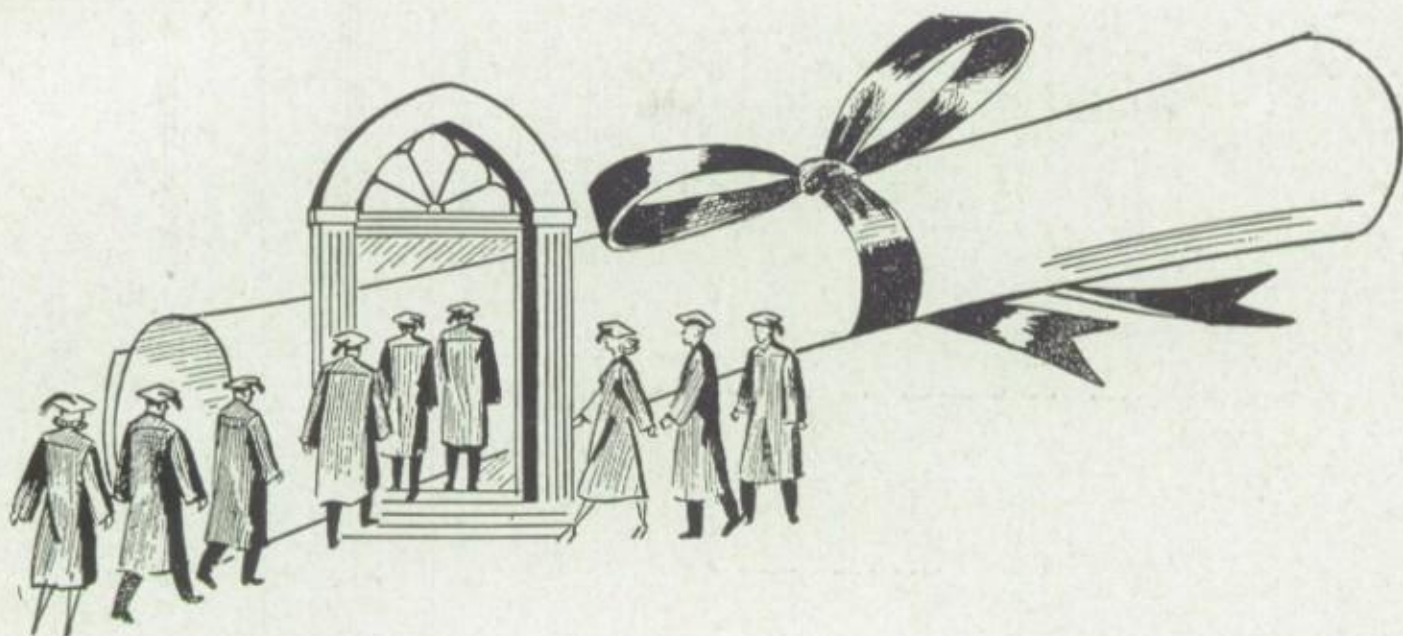

Seniors of 1951, our high school days are ended; and as we leave for the last time we pause for a moment to think of the days we have assembled here at Southport which has grown so dear to us and of the many associations which we have made.

And as we leave, we give each future senior the advice, "Make the best of your school days, because they come but once."

Graduation....

Scholastic achievement has been one of the highest goals for many Southport students. As of the seventh semester the three highest scholastically were Nancy Todd, Joan Eberhart, and Bob Pence, respectively. Nancy and Joan pictured below were not only high honor students but also outstanding and popular leaders in the extra-curricular activities of the school and of their class.

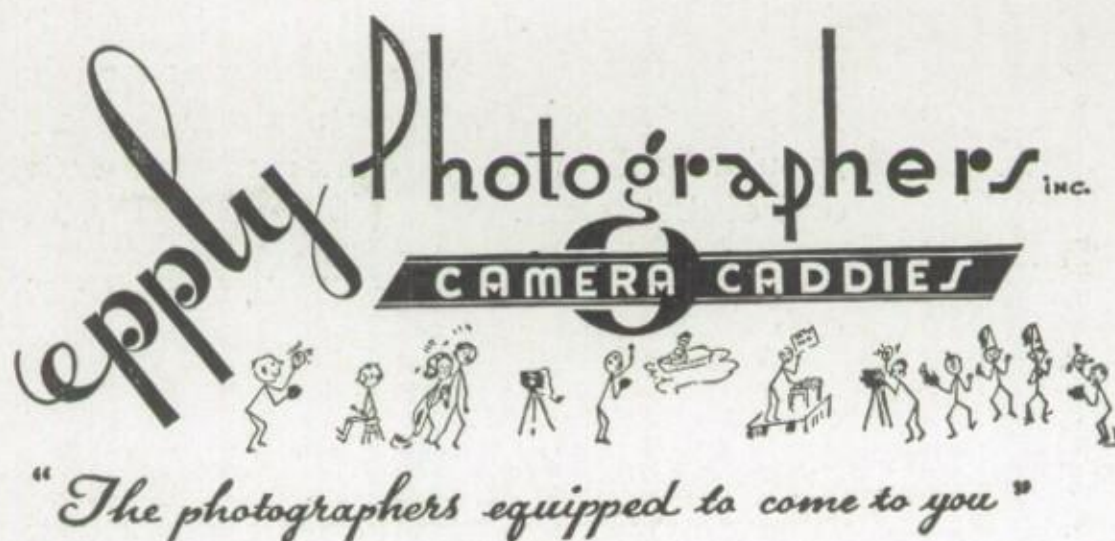

One memory which will always be with the class of 1951 is the message that Joan delivered at the commencement as the valedictorian of the class.
